Special Notice for November!

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the November ASU meeting will be on the 2nd Tuesday of the month (November 13th) instead of the regular third Tuesday.

From the President...

Our next meeting will be a joint meeting with AITP on Microsoft's new XP operating system. Marc Malotke from Microsoft will be talking about this new operating system. Get this information early as the announcement is slated for October 25th and will impact how PC software is packaged and sold forever.

I would like to thank AITP for inviting us to this exciting meeting and hope we can have get support from the ASU community. Please note the date and location change. Please make your reservations through ASU. If you do, dinner will be free.

I would like to thank every one who came to last month's meeting, and especially Brian for presenting the query management query topic. I hope to see everybody this month on Thursday October 11th.

Drew
