President's Note...

If you missed the May meeting, you missed a treat. Chris Banks and Melissa Treier of Information Builders, presented a most informative session about Web-based reporting solutions. Chris also had a few tricks up his sleeve. I thank Chris and Melissa for presenting at the May meeting and look forward to inviting them back at some future ASU meeting.

This month we will be having a picnic for ASU members and their immediate family members. As I see it, we need time to enjoy the weather together before we adjourn for the summer. This is the time to make this happen. Come to the next ASU meeting with your immediate family for some fun together. Also, if you have a game that you would like to share, bring it. I enjoy playing with new games, especially if it's fun. I have also invited IBM to join the rest of us for this event.

I would like to thank the 2003-2004 Officers, Board members, Web-Master, and Editor for their involvement. I would like to specifically thank Renee Strassell for performing the duties of Treasurer during this time frame, your performance and dedication has been noticed and will be missed from the ASU Leadership team.

See You at ASU!

John
