President's Note...

HAPPY NEW YEAR.....

Hope all had enjoyed the Holiday season minus any power outage related issues. I was a victim of the outage and I made the most of the situation.

This year I would like to see every ASU member make the most of our organization. Specifically, our membership should be supportive in the following ways; by attending regularly scheduled meetings, more insightful presentations that can help our businesses operate more effectively and efficiently, and to network with each other in unique ways. I strongly believe by doing these things, our membership will become stronger.

This month's meeting is sponsored by Kodak. I am excited about this event and hope that you invite your supervisors, managers and directors to this event. You will not want to miss this meeting. Lots of surprises will be unveiled.

See you at ASU.

John

Next Month:

ASU hits the road to visit
Cheryl&Co.

Susan Grabinski from IBM will be here to provide the latest on the Websphere family and particularly the Websphere Developer Studio Client, the replacement for PDM and SEU. (You probably own these tools and don't even know it!)
